

Dale Alberts

Athlete-Class of 1966

Dale participated in golf, basketball, and baseball while at Park earning a total of 8 varsity letters. He earned All-Conference honors in both basketball and baseball and led both of those teams to conference championships. Dale served as a captain of the basketball team while also being involved in National Honor Society and a member of the Park High Firemen.

Dale went on to earn seven varsity letters in all three of his sports at Hamline University. He served as a captain for both the basketball and golf teams while earning a degree in economics. After graduating from college, Dale was drafted into the U.S. Army and was assigned as a military policeman to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. While at West Point he also participated in sports at a high level, earning championships along the way.

After his military service, Dale worked for Northwestern Bell where he excelled in marketing for several years earning top sales' awards. During that time, he married and he and his wife Mary raised 4 children. Dale had the joy of coaching each of them in various youth sports. He went on to establish the Christ-based charity "All-Win Spiritual Outreach Ministries (AWSOM)" which served the needy for 7 years. Even in death, Dale's generous nature lived on as his corneas were used to give the gift of sight to another person.
