

Jeff Foote
Athlete – Class of 1991

Jeff Foote earned All-State honors in football and baseball, and was a three-year starter in hockey. As a football player, Jeff was selected as the Runner-Up Player of the Year in the state of Minnesota, was named to the All-Metro team and played in the state's All-Star game. He also played in the Lions' All-Star Game after helping pitch Park to the State Tournament in baseball.

Jeff attended the University of North Alabama where he played baseball and was named their 1995 Male Athlete of the Year and Conference Player of the Year. He has played professional baseball both in the United States and abroad.