

Katie (Hirte) Fellows
CLASS OF 1998

Katie (Hirte) Fellows earned All-Conference honors in hockey for four seasons, softball for three seasons and tennis for one season. She earned multiple All-State honors in hockey and softball. Katie was a four-year starter as the varsity goalie where she was a member of the inaugural Park/Woodbury Varsity Hockey Team. In softball, she pitched the Wolfpack to three state tournament appearances and was named the Gatorade Softball Player of the Year for Minnesota in 1998.

Katie went on to play four seasons of hockey at Yale University where she was the starting goalie for four years and earned multiple awards. She also played two seasons with the Yale softball team. Katie earned a BA in political science at Yale and a JD from UNLV William Boyd School of Law. She is currently Vice President and General Counsel for the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas where she lives with her husband, Sean.