

KERRY LIGTENBERG
CLASS OF '89

Kerry Ligtenberg was a three-time letter-winner in baseball who was twice named All-Conference and was a member of the 1987 State Tournament team. In 1989, he was named All-Region 3AA and he participated in the Lions All-Star Series.

Kerry went on to be named an All-Big Ten performer at the University of Minnesota, and in 1998 he became the first baseball player from Park to reach the major leagues, where he finished fourth in the Rookie of the Year voting as a relief pitcher for the Atlanta Braves.
