

TRISHA (TINUCCI) RINZEL
CLASS OF '87

Trisha (Tinucci) Rinzel participated in soccer, swimming, and track & field, and was highly acclaimed for the leadership qualities she brought to those programs. She received All-Conference as well as All-State recognition in both soccer (where she helped lead the team to two section championships) and track & field.

Trisha went on to the University of St. Thomas where she achieved All-American status in soccer and track & field, becoming the first female athlete in the school's history to be named All-American in two sports.
