

Tim “Corny” Cornwell
CLASS OF 1973

Tim was a seven-time letter winner at Park, participating in football, hockey, track, and baseball. He earned All-Conference honors in hockey and his baseball team won a conference championship. Tim was named to the first-ever high school all-star hockey team.

Tim went on to play hockey at the University of Minnesota for one year during which time they won their first national title. Tim finished his college career at Hamline University where he lettered for three years, set the all-time leading scoring record and was named to the MIAC All-Conference Honorable Mention team.

Following college, Tim spent a year playing professional hockey in Sweden. Upon returning to the US, Tim became the head coach of the Edison High School hockey team for four years earning Edison’s first conference championship. Tim was named Minneapolis City Conference Coach of the Year. From Edison High School Tim returned to Hamline as a head coach for both hockey and soccer, an assistant football coach and a sports information director. His hockey team earned an academic championship.

Introduced by Bill Kroschel

